Landscape & Urban Planning Major

Majors Discovery Week Presentation will be March 5th, 2021 at 5:00 PM Central LANDSCAPE & URBAN STUDIES MAJOR

- Make a difference in earth’s livability for all.
- Study cultural, natural, urban & rural landscapes, systems, and community perspectives.
- Explore complexities of urban challenges and community-based initiatives.
- Evaluate modern, historical, and future land use, planning, conservation, and management.
- Foster more sustainable, resilient, and inclusively just planning and design.
- Combine sciences, social sciences, humanities, and arts in your work.
Areas of Interest & Career Paths

- Restoration and Ecological Design
- Culture, Health, and Community
- Urban Studies
- Environmental Conservation & Management
- Cultural Resource Preservation
- Urban Planning
Recommended Introductory Courses

• URPL 215: Welcome to Your Urban Future
• LA 211: Landscape Inventory & Evaluation Methods
• LA 250: Survey of Landscape Architecture Design
• LA 260: History of Landscape Architecture
For more information please contact:

Deborah Griffin, dagriffin@wisc.edu

Schedule a meeting on Starfish

Visit the Department of Planning and Landscape Architecture at:

https://dpla.wisc.edu/