GWS Major and Certificate Programs
Meet the GWS/LGBTQ+ Studies Advisor
Get Involved in the GWS Community
GWS and LGBTQ+ Studies Careers
Courses

- Gender, Women, and Cultural Representation
- Gender, Women, Bodies and Health
- Race and Gender in Digital Worlds
- The Female Body in the World
- Gender, Race, and Sexuality in Disabled Lives
- Feminist Neuroscience
- The Environment of the Womb
- Capstone Seminar in Gender and Women’s Studies

Declare the GWS major online.
Courses

• Gender, Women, and Society in Global Perspective
• Gender, Health, and Waiting Rooms
• Social Justice Literature
• Biology and Gender
• Women’s Global Health and Human Rights
• Framing Fatness
• Psychology of Women and Gender

Declare the GWS certificate online.
Courses

• Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies
• Feelings: Queer and Asian
• Queering Eco-Feminism
• Queer and Trans Cinema
• Sex and Power in Greece and Rome
• Gender, Race, and Sexuality in Disabled Lives
• Queer Theory and Visual Culture
• LGBTQ+ Health and Health Care

Declare LGBTQ+ Studies online.
Meet the Advisor for GWS and LGBTQ+ Studies

- Contact Susan Nelson by email at susan.nelson@wisc.edu.
- Schedule an advising appointment in Starfish.
- Get information, discuss your course plans, and/or declare a program.

Click here to view the video on YouTube.
Where GWS students get involved

Gender and Sexuality Campus Center
Campus Women’s Center
Promoting Awareness and Victim Empowerment (PAVE)
Sex Out Loud
GWS Club
Domestic Abuse Intervention Services (DAIS)
End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin
LGBT Books for Prisoners
Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin
What GWS students do after graduation

Public Health
Public Policy
Community-Based Activism
Non-Profit Management
Entrepreneurialism
Arts
K-12 Teaching/Higher Education

Health Care
Law
Communications and Media
Business
Social Work
Software Development
Research