Computer Sciences at the University of Wisconsin-Madison

Post-Graduation

"Job prospects for CS majors are better than ever. Beyond the traditional tech sector - for example, at companies like Google, Microsoft, and Amazon- new jobs for computer and data scientists are being created in almost every part of industry, including the worlds of banking, insurance, retail, and beyond. As a result, CS majors here at UW-Madison have more opportunities than ever before, both within the state and beyond."
