As a declared Economics major, you will have access to our services here in the Economics Undergraduate Office and the Career Development Office. Please feel free to visit or contact us as often as you need.

Economics Undergraduate Office, 7238 Social Sciences

Undergraduate Coordinator - Brian Brannon
econadvise@ssc.wisc.edu
608-262-6925
The department's Undergraduate Coordinator can help you with:
- course enrollment and class permissions
- department scholarships
- general department questions

Academic Advisors - Alicia Johanning, Nick Bourke

Alica and Nick will be your assigned advisors for your Economics major. Now that you’re a major, you can make advising appointments through the Starfish app in myUW. You can meet with advisors as often as you need.

Academic Advisors can help you:
- create an academic plan
- plan for study abroad
- choose enjoyable and meaningful courses
- make the most of your student experience
- assist you with any other academic or life issues

Have quick questions? Email econadvise@ssc.wisc.edu

Economics Career Development Office, 7239 Social Sciences

The Economics Career Development Office (ECDO) is here to help you transform your versatile Economics major into a successful career. Even if you do not know what you want to do, schedule an appointment today to make sure that you are on the right track!

Elizabeth Foste, Economics Career Development Office Director

Ilisa May, Career and Outreach Coordinator

As a declared Economics major, you are able to utilize the services in the ECDO to prepare for an internship, discuss your post-graduate plans, and more. You can make an appointment with an economics career advisor in the Starfish app in myUW by searching for "Economics Career Development Office". The staff at the ECDO can help you:

- explore career options for Economics majors
- craft an impressive resume or cover letter
- practice for interviews
- use LinkedIn effectively
- develop a personalized job/internship strategy

Have questions? Email econcareers@ssc.wisc.edu